

DEMOCRATIC WARD MEETING

IN FIRST DISTRICT.

The Democracy of the First and Second Wards will meet on Tuesday night, at the house of Frank Hembler, on Green street between Hancock and Clay streets.

A full attendance of the Democracy, and all who intend to act with them, is earnestly requested.

THOS. H. HOLT, Esq., our Standard-bearer, Meeting at Headquarters.

We take pleasure in announcing to the Democracy of Louisville and Jefferson county that Thos. H. Holt, Esq., will address the Young Men's Democratic Association at their hall on Fifth street, on next

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 10, the regular meeting of the Club.

It is time we were fully organized and in the field.

We need not urge the party to rally to "Headquarters" to hear the eloquent Holt. He goes into the canvass with an energy that will win. It will do the Democracy good to hear him.

MONS. C. COLLIERE.—Our musical reader will recollect that, some two weeks ago, we stated that a movement was on foot to secure M. Colliere to the interests of music in this city. By reference to his card, in this morning's paper, it will be seen he has come to reside among us, and devote his time to instruction in vocal music. We welcome him to our midst as a master in his vocation, and earnestly recommend to those who wish to perfect themselves in vocal music to secure a place under his tuition. His abilities are of the first order, and the reputation he has acquired elsewhere is a sufficient guarantee that he will succeed here. These students of music who are sufficiently advanced to read with comparative ease, will find that a course of practical lessons from M. Colliere will be of inestimable advantage to them. We have no doubt he will secure as many pupils as he desires.

THEATRE.—There was but a small house present last night, and we judge it was owing to the very little talent shown by the members of the dramatic troupe; the tableaux would be much more attractive without the attempt to introduce them. To-morrow night we are to have Uebel, or the Demon in Love, with several new and beautiful tableaux. Now that there is no opposition, it is to be expected that the audience will be larger than they have been. To speak in terms of the highest praise of the exquisite beauty and finish of the pictures presented by the Keller troupe, would be no more than just; and those who desire to enjoy some of the most beautiful sights on earth, will do well to go.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.—The ladies of the Episcopal Church propose holding, at Mazon Hall, a strawberry and floral festival, commencing on Wednesday evening next, for the benefit of St. John's Church, on Jefferson street.

From the time and energy of the ladies under taking it, we can promise not only a feast of the palate, but a feast of the soul, in viewing the beautiful bouquets designed and vended by fair hands, as they go to the benefit of the church, who will be present to assist on that occasion. As this laudable undertaking is for the benefit of a fine church, we hope it will be liberally patronized by our citizens.

COME AT LAST.—We suppose we may not be penitence in congratulating the people of Louisville on the arrival in summer—better late than never. Ice creams, lemonades, pop, molasses, midnight nights, ecstatic delights, and all the good things, etc., etc., will be the order of business for some time.

Last night was one of those dream-inspiring nights, calm, clear and cool enough to be delicious—exactly fitted to make a misanthropic dream that all mankind were angels and him self an archangel.

MEATY FALL.—We feel almost ashamed to say it, but the fact is that the attendance last night was again small. We cannot understand why our people have so neglected Miss Stanley; suppose, however, they have gone into our of their tantrums. We begin to think if she had fixed the price of tickets at one or two dollars, instead of fifty cents, she would have had full houses. The people in this city delight in paying extravagant prices for everything except newspapers.

IF WE ask the perusal of a pleasant little story, in six chapters, appearing on the first page of the Democrat this morning. It is from the pen of a young gentleman of our city, who is actively engaged in business, but whose leisure moments are profitably spent in self-culture, and not unprofitably in giving some pleasant little advice, conveying a useful home lesson to "the people of the world."

IF THE Mayor of Pittsburgh, on Wednesday, had the steamers Endeavor and Nathaniel Holmes each in the sum of ten dollars for violation of an ordinance which requires all pig metal discharged from boats to be placed on the wharf, between Perry and Penn streets. The complaint was made by Wharfmaster Forsyth.

IF AS the weather is becoming warmer, and the red hot summer time approaches, we learn to regard that bed of luxuries, ice, as one of the necessities of life. An abundant supply of the frozen element is carefully stored away to supply our citizens who may send forward their orders for a supply.

IF SEVEN young ladies took the white veil at the Catholic Church in Spring Garden street, below Twelfth, Philadelphia, on Sunday morning last. Many spectators were present, attracted by the sight, which really was of an interesting character.

IF COUNT de Salignes, Mr. Dollfus, and Mr. Paul, of the French Legation; Cavalier Desch Spencer, of the Belgian Legation; and Judge Daly, of New York, are among the notables in our city. They are stopping at the Galt House.

ABANDON HIS WIFE.—Geo. Felker was up in the Police Court yesterday for abusing and maltreating his wife, the offense was proven against him, and he was required to give bail in $200 for three months, to behave himself.

HARD CASES.—Mary Roland and Maria Johnson, two street-walkers, were before the court yesterday for being drunk and disorderly. In default of bail, they were sent to the care for two months.

WAYNE COUNTY.—James C. Belue, Esq., is the Democratic candidate for the Legislature, in Wayne county. He is a wool-dyed Democrat, and is bound to be elected.

IF WE are requested to state that the Medical Club of the Eastern District will meet at the Hook and Ladder Company's hall, Floyd street, on Monday, June 8.

ANOTHER.—D. Matfield had been abusing his family, and was held to bail in $300 to be of good behavior for the period of six months.

IF JOHN, a negro of W. S. Thompson's, was arrested for attempting to pass counterfeit money, but was discharged by the Court.

Religious Intelligence.

SERVICES TO-DAY.

The Rev. Dr. Stratton, of Nashville, will preach this morning, at 11 o'clock, in the Presbyterian Church, on the corner of Walnut and Eleventh streets, and also at 8 o'clock, p. m.

CHRIST CHURCH.—The Rector of Christ Church will deliver a lecture this evening on "Church Parties." Service to commence at 8 o'clock. All seats are free.

REV. H. A. HUNTER, of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, of this city, will preach in Seabury Chapel, Third street, this morning, at 11 o'clock, and also at 8 o'clock, p. m. The public are invited. Seats free.

REV. CYRUS KINGSBURY, formerly of the First Presbyterian Church, will preach in the First Presbyterian Church, this evening, at 8 o'clock.

RIGHT REV. BISHOP MCGILL, of Richmond, Va., will preach this morning, at 10 o'clock, in the Cathedral.

ELDER ROGERS will preach this morning at 11 o'clock at the Hancock street Christian Church.

ORDINATION.—Mr. Charles P. Felch, late of Ann Harbor, Mich., was ordained and installed pastor of the "Central" Church at Amberg, Ill., on the 20th of April.

INVITATIONS.—Rev. W. A. Fleming has accepted a call from the Church of Lewistown, Illinois.

REV. I. N. SHANNON has received a call from the Church at Vernon, Ohio.

REV. F. M. EWING has accepted a call from the First Presbyterian Church in Bloomington, Illinois.

REV. HORACE JAMES, of Worcester, Mass., has declined a call, received several weeks since, from the Vine Street Church in Cincinnati.

NEW CHURCHES.—A very neat and tasteful edifice, in Salem, Ind., was dedicated on Tuesday last to Catholic worship. Right Rev. Dr. Spalding, of this city, conducted the service.

The Reformed Dutch Church at Schuylersville, Saratoga county, N. Y., was dedicated on Monday last, by the Rev. Dr. Spalding, of this city. Rev. Dr. Wyckoff was expected to preach on the occasion.

MISCELLANEOUS.—Rev. J. W. Cramer has resigned the Rectory of St. Paul's, Peoria, and accepted an invitation to Chicago.

REV. T. M. CUMMINGHAM, late of Carondelet, Missouri, was installed pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Indianapolis, on the 7th.

A patent of four sections of land has just been issued by the general Land Office to the Christian Indians a delegation from which tribe will be re-collected, recently visited Washington.

A Boston paper giving a puff to a new minister in that city says: "His prayer at the close of a sermon was the most eloquent ever addressed to a Boston audience."

REV. JOSEPH WOLFE, in an ecclesiastical letter recently published, says that a society in London was nearly thirty years and spent nearly $300,000, and yet has converted "only two Jews and a half."

The Congregational Church in Westford, Windham county, Ct., is closed on account of a sickness between the pastor and the people.

The clergyman refuses to leave, and as the people will not leave the church, he preaches regularly in his own house.

The Presbytery of Greenville have licensed Mr. Wm. T. Price, late of Union Theological Seminary, Virginia.

A minister of religion and preaching in Wisconsin, Wisconsin, of previously good character, recently stole some provisions near Ripon, Wisconsin. He gave as his reasons for so strange conduct, that he had been preaching, and he needed food to eat.

These excuses, however, did not prevent the necessity of taking the provisions to the police. No prosecution was commenced against him for the offense, but a bag of the flour was given him and he went on his way.

REV. GEORGE GRAY has been appointed, by Bishop Waugh, to the presiding bishopric of the Episcopal Church, in the district of the Episcopal Church, made vacant by the death of Rev. John A. Collins.

The London Times, of May 6, says: "For some time past the Rev. Dr. Manning, who, after he became a priest of the Church of Rome a few years since, was a benefited clergyman in the Church of England and Archdeacon of Chester, has been at Rome perfecting himself in all the details of the ecclesiastical system of the Roman Church, and has now received from the Pope the appointment of a canon and provost of the Church in Horseshoe street, Westminster, and is now in the city."

These evident indications of respect, and the fact that Cardinal Wiseman, in his robes, and by the side of other officers of the establishment, was present at the service, and that the new canon, according to the form of the Roman Catholic Church, canonical obedience to the authority of the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster, and was then formally admitted to the possession of his new dignities."

SUBJUG OF A GLENNMAN IN A CANADIAN PRISON.—A Canadian of recent service, residing, named McClatchy, was arrested and imprisoned at London, C. W., a short time since, on a charge of forgery. The London Free Press, of the 19th ult., announces his suicide.

"On the 13th inst., he was lodged in the jail of this city and placed among the other prisoners. It soon became evident to them and to Mr. Parker, the jailer, that the mind of the unfortunate prisoner was deranged. He had been in the prison for some time, and he was very much distressed. He stated that 'Prince Albert would soon be here to let him out, and that the Prince had written him a letter about baptizing his child, and that he was George, Prince of Orange.'"

The London Times, of the 14th inst., has the authorities to put him in a cell by himself. He was there from the 14th to the 18th inst., and during this period, the same aberration of intellect was observable. He ate and drank, and was very much distressed. He complained of his incarceration, and he indicated by his manner in any way that he contemplated self-destruction. On the evening of the 14th the jailer left the unfortunate man alone in his cell, and he was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was tied round the bar of the window in the form of a ring, and to this he suspended himself with another handkerchief. To have strangled himself the deceased must have jumped from the table, as from the short distance from the floor to the top of the cell, but 5½ feet, sufficient fall could not have been obtained to produce strangulation. After he had committed the act, it is evident that the deceased might have saved himself, for his feet were actually touching the ground, and his elbows were resting on the table. There can be no doubt that the deceased was sane when he committed the act, and that he was fully conscious of the nature of his act, and that he was fully conscious of the fact that he was committing suicide. He was found dead on the morning of the 15th inst. He was found hanging by his neck from the bars of the window of the cell. It appears that the deceased went very deliberately to work to accomplish his purpose. A pocket handkerchief was

JEWELRY.
J. DOLINGER,
MANUFACTURER OF GOLD AND SILVERWARE, JEWELRY, DIAMONDS, WATCHES, RINGS, ETC.
I HAVE JUST RECEIVED A BEAUTIFUL STOCK OF GOLD AND SILVERWARE, JEWELRY, DIAMONDS, WATCHES, RINGS, ETC.
717 Third Street, Louisville, Ky.

DRY GOODS.
ONLY ONE MONTH LONGER.
RAU & REIKE WOULD RESPECTFULLY inform their customers, and the public in general, that they have received a large stock of dry goods, and would advise all those in want of such goods to call on them at the early hour, as they do not look for profit, but more for the satisfaction of their customers.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

CLOTHING.
NOVELTY IN THE CLOTHING TRADE!
Lichten, Loewenthal & Co.,
CORNER OF MAIN AND FIFTH STREETS, Louisville, Ky.
ARE DETERMINED TO SUPPLY their customers at all times with the latest styles, both in fashion and material, and having a large stock of goods, they are enabled to do so at the lowest prices.
The stock contains a very complete assortment of clothing, and is of the latest style, and is offered at the lowest prices.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

TRANSPORTATION.
SPRING ARRANGEMENT.
Jeffersonville Railroad!
Shortest, Quickest, and Most Direct Route to Indianapolis, Lafayette, Chicago, Detroit, Galena, Rock Island, Burlington, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Buffalo, New York, Boston, Pittsburg, Baltimore, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, New Haven, Evansville, Cairo, Springfield, St. Louis, and all points East.
The Jeffersonville Railroad is a half-mile long, and is well equipped with the latest machinery, and is operated by the most experienced conductors.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

TRANSPORTATION.
RAILROADS.
SUMMER ARRANGEMENT FOR 1907.
ON AND AFTER MONDAY, MAY 13, 1907, trains will run as follows:
FIRST TRAIN—Leaves Louisville at 7:00 a.m., and arrives at Indianapolis at 1:00 p.m.
SECOND TRAIN—Leaves Louisville at 7:00 a.m., and arrives at Chicago at 1:00 p.m.
THIRD TRAIN—Leaves Louisville at 7:00 a.m., and arrives at New York at 1:00 p.m.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

MANUFACTURES.
R. E. MILES,
Premium Saddle, Harness, and Trunk Manufacturer.
No. 551 Main Street, bet. Second and Third, Louisville, Ky.
KEEPS CONSTANTLY ON HAND a large stock of saddles, harnesses, and trunks, and is prepared to make to order any article in his line.
No. 551 Main Street, bet. Second and Third, Louisville, Ky.

WANTS.
WANTED—DRAY-DRIVER.—An experienced driver, with a good horse, for a dray, to be used in the city. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
WANTED—BY A RESPECTABLE family, a good cook, for a family of five persons. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
WANTED—A GOOD COOK FOR a family of five persons. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
FOR SALE, RENT AND HIRE.
FOR SALE—STEAM ENGINES.—A large steam engine, with boiler, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
FOR SALE—TO CLOSE AN ESTABLISHMENT.—A large establishment, with a large stock of goods, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

Louisville Observatory.
THIS BEING THE ONLY OBSERVATORY in the West (except that at Cincinnati) is a place of interest to all who are interested in the progress of science, and the study of the heavens.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

Watches and Jewelry.
THE SUBSCRIBER RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public in general, that he has received a large stock of watches and jewelry, and is prepared to make to order any article in his line.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

Great Inducements.
ARE NOW OFFERED TO THOSE IN WANT OF CLOTHING!
BY
George Blanchard,
(OPPOSITE GALT HOUSE),
SIGN OF THE GOLDEN HAND.
A LARGO LOT OF GUTTA-Percha Goods on hand. All goods warranted to be of the best quality, and at the lowest prices.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

Important to Travelers!
NEW ALBANY & SALEM R.R.
Shortest, Quickest, and Cheapest Route to the North and West!
Two Trains Daily for St. Louis, and One Train Daily for Chicago.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

Little Miami and Columbus R.R.
EXCLUSIVELY AN EASTERN ROUTE ON AND AFTER THIS DATE THE LITTLE MIAMI VIA COLUMBUS.
The Little Miami and Columbus R.R. is a half-mile long, and is well equipped with the latest machinery, and is operated by the most experienced conductors.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

Hydraulic Foundry.
Northeast Corner Washington and Floyd Streets, Louisville, Ky.
THE UNDERSIGNED ARE NOW MAKING STEAM ENGINES, MILL ENGINES, AND ALL KINDS OF CASTINGS.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

FOR SALE—A VERY DESIRABLE property, situated in the city of Louisville, Ky. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
FOR SALE—A SPLENDID PAIR of horses, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
FOR SALE—A NEGRO WOMAN, 23 years of age, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

Rich Silverware.
A BEAUTIFUL ASSORTMENT OF Rich Silverware, including plates, cups, and spoons, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
Fine Jewelry.
WE ARE NOW FINISHING CARDS, CORDS, AND GARNET SETS, and all kinds of jewelry, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

NEW STOCK OF goods, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
Robes! Robes! Robes!
A large stock of robes, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

Attention, Gentlemen!
THE SUBSCRIBER HAS JUST received a large stock of goods, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
Lotteries.
MAGNIFICENT SCHEME! TWENTY DRAWN BALLOTS! IN CALLING YOUR PARTICULAR attention to this extraordinary scheme, we would advise all those in want of such goods to call on them at the early hour, as they do not look for profit, but more for the satisfaction of their customers.

Important to Travelers!
NEW ALBANY & SALEM R.R.
Shortest, Quickest, and Cheapest Route to the North and West!
Two Trains Daily for St. Louis, and One Train Daily for Chicago.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

Little Miami and Columbus R.R.
EXCLUSIVELY AN EASTERN ROUTE ON AND AFTER THIS DATE THE LITTLE MIAMI VIA COLUMBUS.
The Little Miami and Columbus R.R. is a half-mile long, and is well equipped with the latest machinery, and is operated by the most experienced conductors.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

Hydraulic Foundry.
Northeast Corner Washington and Floyd Streets, Louisville, Ky.
THE UNDERSIGNED ARE NOW MAKING STEAM ENGINES, MILL ENGINES, AND ALL KINDS OF CASTINGS.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

FOR SALE—A VERY DESIRABLE property, situated in the city of Louisville, Ky. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
FOR SALE—A SPLENDID PAIR of horses, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
FOR SALE—A NEGRO WOMAN, 23 years of age, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

Watches and Jewelry.
THE SUBSCRIBER RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public in general, that he has received a large stock of watches and jewelry, and is prepared to make to order any article in his line.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

NEW STOCK OF goods, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
Robes! Robes! Robes!
A large stock of robes, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

Attention, Gentlemen!
THE SUBSCRIBER HAS JUST received a large stock of goods, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
Lotteries.
MAGNIFICENT SCHEME! TWENTY DRAWN BALLOTS! IN CALLING YOUR PARTICULAR attention to this extraordinary scheme, we would advise all those in want of such goods to call on them at the early hour, as they do not look for profit, but more for the satisfaction of their customers.

Important to Travelers!
NEW ALBANY & SALEM R.R.
Shortest, Quickest, and Cheapest Route to the North and West!
Two Trains Daily for St. Louis, and One Train Daily for Chicago.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

Little Miami and Columbus R.R.
EXCLUSIVELY AN EASTERN ROUTE ON AND AFTER THIS DATE THE LITTLE MIAMI VIA COLUMBUS.
The Little Miami and Columbus R.R. is a half-mile long, and is well equipped with the latest machinery, and is operated by the most experienced conductors.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

Hydraulic Foundry.
Northeast Corner Washington and Floyd Streets, Louisville, Ky.
THE UNDERSIGNED ARE NOW MAKING STEAM ENGINES, MILL ENGINES, AND ALL KINDS OF CASTINGS.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

FOR SALE—A VERY DESIRABLE property, situated in the city of Louisville, Ky. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
FOR SALE—A SPLENDID PAIR of horses, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
FOR SALE—A NEGRO WOMAN, 23 years of age, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

Watches and Jewelry.
THE SUBSCRIBER RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public in general, that he has received a large stock of watches and jewelry, and is prepared to make to order any article in his line.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

NEW STOCK OF goods, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
Robes! Robes! Robes!
A large stock of robes, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

Attention, Gentlemen!
THE SUBSCRIBER HAS JUST received a large stock of goods, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
Lotteries.
MAGNIFICENT SCHEME! TWENTY DRAWN BALLOTS! IN CALLING YOUR PARTICULAR attention to this extraordinary scheme, we would advise all those in want of such goods to call on them at the early hour, as they do not look for profit, but more for the satisfaction of their customers.

Important to Travelers!
NEW ALBANY & SALEM R.R.
Shortest, Quickest, and Cheapest Route to the North and West!
Two Trains Daily for St. Louis, and One Train Daily for Chicago.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

Little Miami and Columbus R.R.
EXCLUSIVELY AN EASTERN ROUTE ON AND AFTER THIS DATE THE LITTLE MIAMI VIA COLUMBUS.
The Little Miami and Columbus R.R. is a half-mile long, and is well equipped with the latest machinery, and is operated by the most experienced conductors.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

Hydraulic Foundry.
Northeast Corner Washington and Floyd Streets, Louisville, Ky.
THE UNDERSIGNED ARE NOW MAKING STEAM ENGINES, MILL ENGINES, AND ALL KINDS OF CASTINGS.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

FOR SALE—A VERY DESIRABLE property, situated in the city of Louisville, Ky. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
FOR SALE—A SPLENDID PAIR of horses, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
FOR SALE—A NEGRO WOMAN, 23 years of age, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

Watches and Jewelry.
THE SUBSCRIBER RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public in general, that he has received a large stock of watches and jewelry, and is prepared to make to order any article in his line.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

NEW STOCK OF goods, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
Robes! Robes! Robes!
A large stock of robes, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

Attention, Gentlemen!
THE SUBSCRIBER HAS JUST received a large stock of goods, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
Lotteries.
MAGNIFICENT SCHEME! TWENTY DRAWN BALLOTS! IN CALLING YOUR PARTICULAR attention to this extraordinary scheme, we would advise all those in want of such goods to call on them at the early hour, as they do not look for profit, but more for the satisfaction of their customers.

Important to Travelers!
NEW ALBANY & SALEM R.R.
Shortest, Quickest, and Cheapest Route to the North and West!
Two Trains Daily for St. Louis, and One Train Daily for Chicago.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

Little Miami and Columbus R.R.
EXCLUSIVELY AN EASTERN ROUTE ON AND AFTER THIS DATE THE LITTLE MIAMI VIA COLUMBUS.
The Little Miami and Columbus R.R. is a half-mile long, and is well equipped with the latest machinery, and is operated by the most experienced conductors.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

Hydraulic Foundry.
Northeast Corner Washington and Floyd Streets, Louisville, Ky.
THE UNDERSIGNED ARE NOW MAKING STEAM ENGINES, MILL ENGINES, AND ALL KINDS OF CASTINGS.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

FOR SALE—A VERY DESIRABLE property, situated in the city of Louisville, Ky. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
FOR SALE—A SPLENDID PAIR of horses, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
FOR SALE—A NEGRO WOMAN, 23 years of age, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

Watches and Jewelry.
THE SUBSCRIBER RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public in general, that he has received a large stock of watches and jewelry, and is prepared to make to order any article in his line.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

NEW STOCK OF goods, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
Robes! Robes! Robes!
A large stock of robes, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

Attention, Gentlemen!
THE SUBSCRIBER HAS JUST received a large stock of goods, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
Lotteries.
MAGNIFICENT SCHEME! TWENTY DRAWN BALLOTS! IN CALLING YOUR PARTICULAR attention to this extraordinary scheme, we would advise all those in want of such goods to call on them at the early hour, as they do not look for profit, but more for the satisfaction of their customers.

Important to Travelers!
NEW ALBANY & SALEM R.R.
Shortest, Quickest, and Cheapest Route to the North and West!
Two Trains Daily for St. Louis, and One Train Daily for Chicago.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

Little Miami and Columbus R.R.
EXCLUSIVELY AN EASTERN ROUTE ON AND AFTER THIS DATE THE LITTLE MIAMI VIA COLUMBUS.
The Little Miami and Columbus R.R. is a half-mile long, and is well equipped with the latest machinery, and is operated by the most experienced conductors.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

Hydraulic Foundry.
Northeast Corner Washington and Floyd Streets, Louisville, Ky.
THE UNDERSIGNED ARE NOW MAKING STEAM ENGINES, MILL ENGINES, AND ALL KINDS OF CASTINGS.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

FOR SALE—A VERY DESIRABLE property, situated in the city of Louisville, Ky. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
FOR SALE—A SPLENDID PAIR of horses, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
FOR SALE—A NEGRO WOMAN, 23 years of age, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

Watches and Jewelry.
THE SUBSCRIBER RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public in general, that he has received a large stock of watches and jewelry, and is prepared to make to order any article in his line.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

NEW STOCK OF goods, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
Robes! Robes! Robes!
A large stock of robes, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

Attention, Gentlemen!
THE SUBSCRIBER HAS JUST received a large stock of goods, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
Lotteries.
MAGNIFICENT SCHEME! TWENTY DRAWN BALLOTS! IN CALLING YOUR PARTICULAR attention to this extraordinary scheme, we would advise all those in want of such goods to call on them at the early hour, as they do not look for profit, but more for the satisfaction of their customers.

Important to Travelers!
NEW ALBANY & SALEM R.R.
Shortest, Quickest, and Cheapest Route to the North and West!
Two Trains Daily for St. Louis, and One Train Daily for Chicago.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

Little Miami and Columbus R.R.
EXCLUSIVELY AN EASTERN ROUTE ON AND AFTER THIS DATE THE LITTLE MIAMI VIA COLUMBUS.
The Little Miami and Columbus R.R. is a half-mile long, and is well equipped with the latest machinery, and is operated by the most experienced conductors.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

Hydraulic Foundry.
Northeast Corner Washington and Floyd Streets, Louisville, Ky.
THE UNDERSIGNED ARE NOW MAKING STEAM ENGINES, MILL ENGINES, AND ALL KINDS OF CASTINGS.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

FOR SALE—A VERY DESIRABLE property, situated in the city of Louisville, Ky. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
FOR SALE—A SPLENDID PAIR of horses, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
FOR SALE—A NEGRO WOMAN, 23 years of age, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

Watches and Jewelry.
THE SUBSCRIBER RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public in general, that he has received a large stock of watches and jewelry, and is prepared to make to order any article in his line.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

NEW STOCK OF goods, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
Robes! Robes! Robes!
A large stock of robes, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

Attention, Gentlemen!
THE SUBSCRIBER HAS JUST received a large stock of goods, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
Lotteries.
MAGNIFICENT SCHEME! TWENTY DRAWN BALLOTS! IN CALLING YOUR PARTICULAR attention to this extraordinary scheme, we would advise all those in want of such goods to call on them at the early hour, as they do not look for profit, but more for the satisfaction of their customers.

Important to Travelers!
NEW ALBANY & SALEM R.R.
Shortest, Quickest, and Cheapest Route to the North and West!
Two Trains Daily for St. Louis, and One Train Daily for Chicago.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

Little Miami and Columbus R.R.
EXCLUSIVELY AN EASTERN ROUTE ON AND AFTER THIS DATE THE LITTLE MIAMI VIA COLUMBUS.
The Little Miami and Columbus R.R. is a half-mile long, and is well equipped with the latest machinery, and is operated by the most experienced conductors.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

Hydraulic Foundry.
Northeast Corner Washington and Floyd Streets, Louisville, Ky.
THE UNDERSIGNED ARE NOW MAKING STEAM ENGINES, MILL ENGINES, AND ALL KINDS OF CASTINGS.
No. 41, south side of Market Street, Louisville, Ky.

FOR SALE—A VERY DESIRABLE property, situated in the city of Louisville, Ky. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
FOR SALE—A SPLENDID PAIR of horses, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.
FOR SALE—A NEGRO WOMAN, 23 years of age, for sale. Apply to J. H. McLean, 1000 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.